

Name: Dr Jayesh Sardhara (M.Ch.)

General Achievements:

Current:

Director, Minimally Invasive Brain & Spine Surgery

Dept of Neurosurgery

Fortis hospital, Mulund, Mumbai

Ex faculty, SGPGIMS, Lucknow

Contribution to Neurosciences:

Sub Editor, Journal of Spinal Surgery

Section Editor, Neurology India Journal

EC member of NSSA

Research and innovations-

1 patent – Novel CVJ distractor and reducer

121 research publications in national and international journals

2 books edited

26 books chapter published

6 prestigious awards

Organization:

National and international conference organised as organising secretary – 4

Cadaveric and live operative workshop conducted – 16

Invited faculty guest lecture in national conference - 126

Mentorship:

Mentorship – 6 fellows trained for complex & minimally invasive spine surgery

Advance training for sub specialization

5 national & international fellowship/observer ship

Endoscopic skull base surgery (Tokyo, Japan),

Minimally invasive spine surgery (Seoul- Korea, Aichi – Japan)

Epilepsy Surgery (SCITMT, Kerala)

Pediatric NS (SGPGIMS, Lucknow)

Neuro-oncology (SGPGIMS, Lucknow)

Number of annual conferences (NSICON) attended in the last 5 years: 4

Contribution to Neurological Society of India:

Life member NSI -11 years

Conducted 4 cadaveric workshop in annual conference of NSI as course instructor

[NSICON 2023 -Bhubaneshwar – Conducted spine workshop & CME as faculty

NSICON 2022 – Agra - Conducted spine workshop & CME as invited faculty

NSICON 2021 – Virtual conference – Lecture & E-poster presented

NSICON 2019 – Mumbai – Conducted epilepsy surgery cadaveric workshop]

Conducted 2 educational NSI foundation and teaching course as teaching faculty

Participated 3 national NSI webinar and 1 exam course online as a speaker

Remain actively instrumental, regular voter for all the annual NSI election