BIO-DATA: Dr. Hemant Kumar Bhartiya

General Achievements:

Dr. Hemant Kumar Bhartiya is Senior Director & Head, Department of Neurosurgery, Fortis Escorts Hospital, Jaipur, with four decades of dedicated clinical practice and teaching. He completed M.Ch. Neurosurgery from the renowned Grant Medical College & Sir J.J. Hospital, Mumbai in 1986. He has been honoured with Raja Pajjavan Dev Award (2012), Outstanding Young Person Award (1993) and special recognition for committed social service.

Contribution to Neurological Society of India (NSI):

He has served as EC Member, NSI and has the exceptional record of participating in 36 Annual Conferences of NSI. He had the distinct privilege of successfully organizing the landmark 67th Annual Conference of NSI (NSICON 2018) at Jaipur.

Contribution to Neurosciences:

He is currently President, Cerebrovascular Society of India (CVSI). He has held prestigious national leadership positions as Immediate Past President, Skull Base Surgery Society of India (SBSSI) and Past President, Neuroendoscopy Society of India (NESI) and Member, Fortis Medical Council.

He pioneered advanced neurosurgical techniques in Rajasthan after completing global fellowships at NYU, Johns Hopkins, Paris, London, Nottingham and Japan. He has authored over 100 scientific papers and chapters, established the prestigious Prof. S.R. Dharker Oration in Jaipur, and coordinated high-profile live surgical workshops with international icons like Prof. Samii, Prof. Sano, Prof. Gaab and Prof. Destandau – including Live Endoscopic Workshop with Prof. Gaab (2004), Symposium with Prof. Destandau (2006), 4th Annual Conference of NESI with live workshop (2017), IMS 2023 meeting with Prof. Samii, and 24th Annual Conference of CVSI.